REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 19.—Rain kept the attendance down at Oakhand to-day, and the races were run in sloppy going. Solls, a new jockey here, was indefinitely suspended in the first race for reckiess riding, and his mount, Spindle, which finished second, was disqualified, the race going to Follow Mc, with Billy Lyons, the favorite, second, and Pegalong third.

Lou Welsen, who carried most of the money, won the second event, while Presione bear out the well-played Monastic for the place. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

The field got off like a platoon of cavalry and ran ounched until the stretch was reached, when Boundless pulled ahead and captured the money by a length from Tiburon, second and Jerid, third, Tersina, the odds-on favorite, was fifth.

its share of the run-up money in selling races in a manner which will be most gratifying to owners. It will each meeting add this money to some long distance thereby returning it to the pockets of the horsemen, from where it comes. If horsemen ever had any doubts as to the sincerity of the new jockey club to encourage high-class racing and at the same time reward them with a goodly portion of the profits, such little acts as the one just mentioned must fast be dispelling them.

WESTERN LIGHT-HARNESS CIRCUIT Three Months of Continuous Racing

A strong chain of Western trotting meetings was arranged at the annual meeting of the Great Western Circuit stewards in Chicago. Beginning at Terre Haute. Ind., on Jusy 2, meetings are to be held on successive weeks at Davenport, In.; Des Moines, In.; Independence, In.; Jotiet, Ih.; Preeport, Ih.; Davenport, In.; Galesburg, Dubuque, Minneapells, Milwaukee, Indianapolls, Evansville and Terre Haute. These meetings will ful out the season until October 5, the week before the opening of the annual races at Lexington.

Although horsemen generally have understood that the late Marcus Daly's collection of trotters was to be relatined by his heirs, it is probable that all the marcs, stalltons and young stock at the Bitter Root ranch will be sood under the auctioneer's hammer in New York next fall. Prodigal, 2:15, and Ponce de Leon, 2:13's, are at the head of the stud, and the band of broodmares includes many noted trotters. In all there are about 250 trotting-bred horses on the Montana ranch.

Supreme Court's Decision Decemed Good Thing for Horse Racing.

The decision of the Supreme Court of the State of Missouri affirming the constitutionality of the racing act known as the breeders' law was handed down at Jefferson City yesterday. The court was unanimous in its opinion. The breeders' law regulates racing dates and pool selling in this State, permitting both for a period of ninety days on any one track in the State between April 15 and November 1. The bookmakers and pool sellers must take out a State license, which costs each bookmaker and pool sellers must take out a State license, which costs each bookmaker and pool sellers must take out a State license, which costs each bookmakers and pool sellers have paid in over $15,090.

The breeders' act prohibits bookmaking and pool selling outside of a race track and provides a stiff penalty for any person or persons convicted of making books or selling pools in defiance of the act.

Several St. Louis bookmakers have been convicted and heavily fined by Judge Clark in the Court of Criminal Correction for violating the breeders' law. Their cases were appealed to the Supreme Court, and, pending that body's decision in the matter, the local bookmakers have been practically running wide open.

There have been at least six poolrooms where odds have been posted and the results called off in operation here all winter. In addition to these rooms, at least a dozen handbooks have also been running. The handbookmakers take bets from regular customers and pay off according to the odds quoted in the papers the next morning. Last season he bought the black gelding Connor, then II years of age, with a mark of 2:19%, and amazed all horsemen by making aimost a clean sweep with the old fellow in the Grand Circuit. The horse won eight out of ten races, placing to the credit side of his owner's bank account the tidy sum of $5.675. His record dropped to 2:03%, and he was steadily improving when his tenth annual campaign came to an end. Mr. Chapin is going to campaign Connor, Coney and Dariet this year.

Match at Hot Springs Brings Ou Some Good Work.

Some Good Work.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Hot Springs, Ark., Feb. 12.—The second day of the international shoot was remorkable for the unfavorable condition which prevalled at the traps. A high wind was rlowing and the day was biting cold, which caused comparatively small scores to be made. Over sixty gun men, from all over the country, went out to the traps, but only thirty of them participated in more than a few of the events. There were in all fifteen events shot off, which were witnessed by several hundred spectators.

The old-time crack shots, Marshall and Elliott, were unavoidably absent from this tournament on account of illness. Fred Gilbert, Rolla Heikes, Tramp Irwin, Crosby, Fanning and Parmalee made some good scores.

Gilbert won first honors, making a total of 239 out of 225 targets. Fanning came next with a score of 297 out of 225. Crosby and Parmalee books 255 cach and believe

The local police find it exceedingly difficult to make cases against the handbookmakers. As soon as it was given out yesterday that the Supreme Court had sustained the constitutionality of the breeders' law, every pooltoom in the city was closed up tighter than a drum, and the handbookmakers were also exceedingly careful about taking bets. Only steady customers of the handbookles were able to place a bet in St. Louis yesterday. With all the poolrooms and handbooks practically out of business, the play in the poolroom at Madison, ill., showed a heavy increase. Hundreds of regulars went across the river to play the ponies for the first time this winter, and the proprietors of the poolroom running there will doubtless reap a rich harvest between now and next spring, when the local race tracks will throw open their gates.

In deciding the breeders' law constitutional the Supreme Court placed horse racing on a sound, legal basis in this State, which, of course, is highly gratifying to local track managers. The breeders' law was drawn up by several of the ablest attorneys in the State. The Missouri Horse Breeders' Association aided greatly in parsing the measure through the State Legislature. It was signed by Governor Stephens.

WHY HE TREATS AND CURES MEN ONLY.

An Interview of Absorbing Interest to Men of All Ages Afflicted With Ailments Peculiar to Their Sex.

W. A. COOK, M. D.

All diseases are not curable, but many more of them would be if all physicians were like the well-known and reliable expert, Dr. W. A. Cook of the Cook Medical Company, at 619 Olive street. He does not pretend to alleviate every ill that afflicts the human family. Instead of scattering his faculties over the entire field of medicine and surgery, he concentrates them all on a few diseases, a single line of them, which he has long studied and thoroughly mastered. Never attempt more than you can do well, is a rigid rule of Dr. Cook's practice. If all physicians would adhere to this rule, if they would absolutely master a few diseases instead of trying to acquire a general knowledge of them all, there would be in this world less sickness and sorrow and more health and happiness.

To the question: "Do you treat all discases?" the doctor replied emphatically:

"No, indeed. If I did I would not be a specialist. I limit my practice strictly to the diseases within my specialty. To these alone I have earnestly devoted my whole professional life, which is not now very ehort and certainly never inactive."

"What diseases constitute your specialty, doctor?"

doctor, what you mean by associate diseases?"

If mean all aliments that arise from or have their seat or origin in the diseases already mentioned. For instance, brain, nerve and sexual disabilities arise from varicocele; urinary, prostatic, bladder and kidney troubles come from stricture; eczema, scrofula, rheumatism and other skin, blood and bone diseases result from contagious blood poison in the system; and a long train of distressing symptoms indicating physical, mental and sexual weakness are always present with impotency, or, as some people call it, lost manbood. All these resulting ills or reflex complications, which may be properly termed associate diseases, and which, in fact, are often more serious than the original aliment that gives the them—all, I say, disappear completely and forever with the cure of the main malady. I always remove the effect of a disease as well as the cause."

"I understaud, doctor, that you have a epocial cure for contagious blood poison which has been highly spoken of in various medical journals. Do you care to say something about that?"

"I believe that many oid-fogy physicians, which has been highly spoken of in various mineral mixtures, thus driving the disease deeper in instead of forcing it out, still claim that Contagious Blood Poison is incurable, Even my college professors used the control of the most interesting interviews the writer has ever been detailed to get.
